Public Notice:

We would like to announce the formation of a new club for racers that never win. It is called The Club for Racers That Never Win. The club was created in order to unite those of us that race and just never quite get into the top four. We will publish a Newsletter with articles dealing with subjects like "Things I should have done that I didn't do" "Why the hell am I riding this stupid thing" "How to keep from being beat by a Honda 350 when you are on a 750 Sport" "I've gotta stop letting my Mom tune my bike" "Why the hell don't I learn how to stay on the damn track" Yes sree folks interesting topics like these are bound to stimulate you into improved racing. If you race and never win then this club is for you. Write to Auld Weis Lhasst, 1234 Intoo Dahaybeiles Rd., Nevawhin, Rhode Island. 45321

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The United States Postal Service will not forward "Bulk Mail" which is the way we ship out our DIOC Newsletter. If you have moved and have not sent us a change of address then don't expect to get your newsletter. We are no longer responsible for Newsletters lost due to members failure to send us a CHANGE OF ADDRESS. In the past we have been sending out copies of the DIOC but due to the high cost of running this club we can no longer afford to keep up this practice. Any lost issues due to members failure to notify us will be charged $1.50 + 20¢ post. per issue. Your cooperation is appreciated. Pam Froemsdorf, Sec.
