Public Notice:

The National Order of the Duck will hold its first annual meeting March 8th in WalaWala Washington. While you feast over fried chicken and Kool Aid, guest speakers will discuss subject dealing with "Why Ducatis are called Ducks" and why ducks are never called Ducatis. (?). If you are a paid up member you must wear your stuffed duck hat (a limited quantity will be available for sale and more will be forthcoming as soon as the hunting season opens or as soon as Joel runs over a few in Miramar, Florida where the populations is getting a bit out of hand.) You will also be asked to bring your Duck call whistle. Those who bring their Ducks or their pet ducks will get a special 10% discount on a roast duck dinner at Als Diner whose three convenient locations (Key West, Fla, Old Town Maine, and Bismark, Alaska are open 3 hrs a day to serve you.). For more info write to Dione Ducsoop, c/o of The N.O.D., 149 Runumova, Vityercar, Mass.
