

DUCATI ANNONIMOUS LISTING

We are working on this listing of members who will lend their time and efforts to aid other Duke owners on the road and we find that there are still a lot of applications that have not found their way back into our office. If you have not filled out your application, please do so and mail it back. We are still trying to put the thing together but in order for it to be worthwhile we have to have more participation. And, for those of you clowns that got peanut butter and jelly all over your form, and then discarded it, or you used it to line the cage of your parrot, or made a paper airplane out of it, or for those of you who thought it was a great idea and now you don't.....?.....well here is another opportunity to get with it. A copy of the Ducati Annonymous application is printed here somewhere. I can't see it cause I'm typing this while I'm watching Boosom Buddies on TV...what an idiotic show, for those of you overseas who don't know what it is...you really don't want to know. It's stupid! What in the hell am I talking about. I think these Barcardi and Orange juice things are getting outta hand. Conclusion follows below.

Please send in your Ducati Annonymous Application and we'll get down to finishing it and have it ready by this riding season. OK thank you folkes...folks. Jeez.
